

RingCentral Events Accessibility Statement

The Hopin Events, Hopin Session and Boomset services have been acquired by RingCentral. For Hopin Events (now RingCentral Events), Hopin Session (now RingCentral Session) and Boomset customers, updated terms are as follows: RingCentral Global Platform Terms at <https://ringcentral.com/legal/ringcentral-events/global-platform-terms>, and for other terms and policies, including Privacy Notice, visit <https://www.ringcentral.com/legal.html>.

At RingCentral, we believe that inclusivity is fundamental to nurturing the most meaningful connections. Ensuring that our website and products are equitable and accessible to all users is of highest priority. In order to support this, we are committed to aligning with the accessibility best practices, including the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines \(WCAG\) version 2.1 level AA criteria.

With this in mind,

- We conduct evaluations and audits of core products, and
- Provide internal training for staff around accessibility principles.

In RingCentral's ongoing efforts to provide an open, inclusive, and accessible product experience for all, we welcome your questions and/or feedback. Please contact us through our support form.
